In this case, the allegation against the petitioner is that he has five criminal antecedents under his belt and while the informant and his family members were sleeping, he has heard the commotion and found accused persons in their house. The further allegation is that the informant was tied and his gold chain was snatched. The same offence was repeated with his better-half and after committing dacoity, they left the place.

Earlier the matter was taken up on 12.09.2022 and the same was rejected vide Cr. Misc. No. 33667 of 2022.
