alleged and he has been implicated in this case merely on suspicion. He further submits that the petitioner is a stranger and he is not related either to the family of the deceased or the family of her in-laws. He next submits that killing of the deceased at the hands of the accused persons is totally a concocted story inasmuch as the deceased was suffering from lung cancer and she died due to that ailment.

5. Regards being had to the submissions advanced on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner is not related to the family of the husband of the deceased and the deceased was suffering from lung cancer, for which she was treated at AIIMS, Patna, as well as Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow, I am inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.
6. This application is, accordingly, allowed.
7. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within a period of four weeks from today, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned

Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gaya, in connection with Mufassil Police Station Case No. 884 of 2022, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
