ORAL ORDER

3 24-03-2023 Learned counsel for the petitioners is not present. A mention has been made on his behalf by a proxy counsel. However, this Court finds that even on the previous date, he was not present and, therefore, the case has been heard.

The petitioners, by way of this writ petition, have prayed for quashing of an award dated 23rd December, 2022 passed by the Sole Arbitrator under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (hereinafter referred to as ‘the Act of 1996’).

The writ petition is found to be wholly misconceived and frivolous. The provisions of Sections 34 and 37 of the Act of 1996 provides for filing of objections against an award before the concerned District Judge and then before this Court.

The writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed.
