CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

- 2 18-08-2023 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for respondents.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has now been paid the salary. Prayer No. (i) therefore is infructuous.
3. Prayer No. (ii) is for assailing the resolution dated 16-8-2022, pursuant to which charges have been framed against the petitioner.
4. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that petitioner is an Assistant Electrical Engineer, Electrical Supply Sub-division, whereas the alleged irregularities relate to revenue department for which the petitioner is not responsible. It is also submitted that pursuant to the resolution, the petitioner is participating in the proceedings.

5. The Court does not find any reason for interfering with the resolution dated 16-8-2022, pursuant to which proceedings have been initiated against the petitioner and in which he is already participating, wherein he can effectively take the plea regarding not being responsible for the lapse, as noted above, and/or all other issues that he may raise in his defense.

6. The writ application is dismissed.
