Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was not apprehended from the spot as such nothing was recovered from his conscious possession, it is next submitted that petitioner had sold his motorcycle to Pappu much prior to the occurrence, it is also submitted that had the petitioner been the owner of the motorcycle then definitely as a prudent person he would not have used his vehicle for committing a crime and thus would create evidence against himself and hence would get implicated easily, when admittedly petitioner is a person with clean antecedent.
