ORAL ORDER

2 12-05-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 341, 323, 324, 307, 379, 504/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case, in brief, is that all the F.I.R. named accused persons including the petitioner were fixing peg and trough in front of house of the informant and when the same was objected by the informant, accused persons started abusing the informant. On protest, co-accused Mukesh Thakur gave farsa blow on the head of informant and the petitioner gave knife blow on the head of the informant due to which he sustained injuries. When the mother and uncle of the informant came to his rescue, accused persons also assaulted them and snatched mangal-sutra and ear ring from the mother of the informant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case due to land dispute. There is case and counter case between the parties. As per injury report, the injuries received by the informant is simple in nature and caused by hard and blunt substance, which is annexed as Annexure-2 with this petition. It is further submitted that the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 25.01.2023.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as period of custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Kalyanpur P.S. Case No. 291 of 2022 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, East Champaran, Motihari.
