Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. The informant and the petitioner both are full brothers and a land dispute is going on between them due this reason the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case. There is no repetition of firing upon the informant son. As alleged only one injury sustained by informant's son which is opined by the doctor as simple in nature caused by firearm and in support of this, injury report of the injured has been annexed as Annexure-3.
