APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 302 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Prosecution case in short, is that, the brother of the informant went to his shop but did not return at night.

the informant's brother. After admitting to the hospital, doctor Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case merely on suspicion. The petitioner is not named in F.I.R. rather his name came into light in this case on the basis of confessional statement of other co-accused persons, namely, Anshu Raj and Ritik Kumar before the police who said that petitioner also involved in the alleged offence. It is further submitted that nothing specific allegation has been attributed against the petitioner and also he is non-assailant of this alleged offence. Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.
