CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

4 09-01-2023 No one appears for the petitioner. Learned APP for the State is present.

The petitioner has preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 363, 366 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, two accused persons came on two motorcycles and it is stated by the informant that they took away his daughter-in-law and grandson with them. The informant further states that he came to learn from the co-villagers that the accused persons were involved in selling of women.

From perusal of the petition it transpires that the case of the petitioner is that he has been falsely implicated in the case. There is no specific allegation against him. No incriminating article has been recovered from his possession. The victim is a married lady who was having a love affair with someone as a result of which she fled away. The FIR was registered after an unexplained inordinate delay. Co-accused Bikky Ray has been enlarged on bail. The petitioner is in custody since 21.1.2022.

The application for bail is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State who submits that the daughter-in-law and grandson of the informant are still traceless.

Having heard learned APP for the State and having perused the material on record, in view of the fact that the allegation is of relationship between the daughter-in-law of the informant and the petitioner and the daughter-in-law and the grandson of the informant still being traceless, the Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail and the application is rejected.
