the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for State.

2. It is submitted by the learned Advocate for the petitioner that the petitioner does not want to proceed with the instant revision and the application may be dismissed as withdrawn.

3. Learned Advocate for the Opposite Party No. 2 submits that the instant revision arises out of an order passed in a maintenance proceeding. On 2nd of September,

4. It is submitted by the learned Advocate for the petitioner that the petitioner is in the process of assessing the arrears/maintenance and he will pay the amount after such assessment.

5. Since the petitioner has withdrawn the instant revision, the impugned order of maintenance remains in force. If the Opposite Party No. 2 does not pay, both arrears and current maintenance, the petitioner is at liberty to file execution proceeding in the appropriate forum.

With the aforesaid observation/direction, the instant revision stands dismissed as withdrawn.
