counsel for the petitioner are that the instant matter relates to recovery made from the car and as per allegation, 900 litres of English wine is stated to have been recovered from the petitioner's car but in actual the said recovery has been wrongly shown as having been made from the petitioner's vehicle and as such he has been falsely roped in this case, though against the petitioner, there is criminal antecedent of one case but he is on bail in the said case and in the present time, he has been languishing in jail since 25.01.2023 and similarly situated co-accused persons, namely, Rakesh Kumar and Umesh Kumar have been granted regular and anticipatory bail respectively by different co-ordinate Benches of this Court vide orders passed in Cr. Considering the above submissions and mainly the completion of investigation against the petitioner and the privilege of bail having been granted to similarly situated co-accused persons, as mentioned-above, in the opinion of this Court a lenient approach can be taken in respect of the petitioner's prayer, let the petitioner be released on bail in
