ORAL ORDER

4      17-08-2023                      Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

2. The petitioner's candidature has been rejected for not fulfilling the minimum requisite qualification in terms of the advertisement at Clause 4, which reads as follows:-

| क्र० सं० | पदनाम | न्यूनतम योग्यता एवं अहर्ता                                                                     | मानदेय                                                                                                                                   | अभ्युक्ति |
| 1        | अमीन  | सरकारी मान्यता प्राप्त संसथान से अमानत की डिग्री या आई०टी०आई० से सर्वेयर के प्रशिक्षण में सफल। | 22000/-(मानदेय 15345/-, EPF and ESI सरकार का अंशदान- 2655/-, मोबाईल लैपटॉप व इन्टरनेट व्यय की प्रतिपूर्ति-4000/- प्रतिमाह 12 माह के लिए) | -         |

3. The petitioner's qualification is based on a certificate issued by National Institute of Electronics & Information Technology, Patna. The same is neither a degree issued by a government recognised institution, nor a certificate showing successful completion of training as surveyor at an ITI.

4. The petitioner, therefore, does not possess the requisite qualification and has rightly not been considered on account of not possessing the requisite minimum qualification as per the advertisement.

5. No case is made out for invoking writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

6. Writ petition is, therefore, dismissed.
