ORAL ORDER

6 04-10-2023 None appears on behalf of the petitioner. However,

Mr. Brajendra Nath Pandey, learned A.P.P. for the State.

It appears from the record that for the last three consecutive occasions, the petitioner has been seeking adjournments somehow or the other reason and today also no one on behalf of the petitioner paid heed to address the Court on repeated calls which appears to be deliberate and intentional act of the petitioner or it could be said that the petitioner is evading from the burden of compliance of the earlier order dated 07.07.2023 by which he had been granted ad-interim relief with specific direction in paragraph-8 of the said order that the petitioner shall deposit first installment of Rs. 300000/-, as agreed by him, within a period of one month from the date of the order, despite that petitioner has chosen not comply the order of this Court even after passing almost three months from the date of the order, which was passed on 07.07.2023.

In view of the aforesaid, this application is being dismissed for want of prosecution on behalf of the petitioner. Accordingly, this application stands dismissed for non-prosecution on behalf of the petitioner.
