ORAL ORDER

2 06-07-2023 As both these bail applications have cropped up from the same police station case number, hence, with consent of parties, they are being heard together and disposed of by this common order.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned A.P.P. for the State assisted by learned counsel for the informant.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302/120(B)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against the petitioners is that they along with other accused persons have committed murder of the brother-in-law of the informant.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners are innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case. The allegation levelled against the petitioners is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. He submits that the occurrence took place in the night in the month of October and no one claims himself to be an eye witness of the alleged occurrence. He further submits that the deceased was a notorious criminal and has four criminal antecedents. Petitioners of Cr. Misc No. 24124 of 2023 have no criminal antecedent and in Cr. Misc No. 24463 of 2023, petitioner no. 1 and 3 have no criminal antecedent and petitioner no. 2 has two criminal antecedents as mentioned in para-3 of this application.

Learned APP for the State as well as learned counsel for the informant opposed prayer for anticipatory bail and submitted that the petitioner are involved in the present case.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, arguments of the parties, perusal of the records and the fact that there is no eye witness in the present case, let the above named petitioners, be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned lower Court where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Chapra Town P.S.
