CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN
ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 24-03-2023

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State as well as learned counsel for the opposite party no.2.

The present criminal revision application has been filed for setting aside the order dated 14.02.2017 passed by Additional Sessions Judge-V, Siwan in Cr. Revision No. 176 of 2014 by which the order dated 22.08.2014 (wrongly mentioned 28.06.2014) taking cognizance by S.D.J.M., Siwan in Complaint Case No. 2045 of 2014 under Section 504 of I.P.C. has been set aside.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that the revisional court at the time of scrutinized cognizance order has not considered any document minutely and passed an evasive order by which the petitioner is aggrieved.

Counsel for the opposite party submits that the complainant is a practicing advocate whose sister was working as a supervisor under the accused and in the departmental work O.P. no.2 has used some hard word with the sister of the complainant, on this ground the present complaint has been lodged by the brother of the supervisor, who is an advocate of the civil court. The revisional court has tested the order and found the cognizance bad in law.

Counsel for the State submits that it is a case where advocate has filed for the grievances of his sister.

Upon going through the record, it transpires to me that the question of legality, correctness and propriety have not been raised. Cognizance order is always a prima facie order and it has been checked by the revisional court. Upon considering the S.A., enquiry witnesses, cognizance order and order of revision, I found no illegality in the said orders and therefore, the present criminal revision is hereby dismissed.
