Appearance :

For the Petitioner/s : Mr.Umesh Chandra Verma, Advocate

For the Opposite Party/s : Mr.Nagendra Prasad, A.P.P.

CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MOHIT KUMAR SHAH
ORAL ORDER

3 19-01-2023 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Majhaulia P.S. Case No. 121 of 2020 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304-B and 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation is regarding accused persons having killed the deceased victim lady on account of non-fulfillment of the demand for dowry.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent, she has been falsely implicated in the present case, is having a clean antecedent and she is languishing in custody since 14.02.2022. It is further submitted that the petitioner is mother-in-law of the deceased victim lady and was staying separately from her son and the deceased victim lady, hence, has got nothing to do with the alleged occurrence. It is also submitted that if anybody might be responsible for the death of the deceased victim lady, it might be the husband of the deceased victim lady, who is in custody since 10.09.2020, hence, no prejudice would be caused to the prosecution in case the petitioner is granted the privilege of bail.

Per contra, the learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for bail.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and taking into account the materials available on record as also considering the fact that the husband of the deceased victim lady is already behind bars, apart from the fact that the petitioner is stated to be living separately from the deceased victim lady and her husband, I deem it fit and proper to admit the petitioner to the privilege of bail.

Accordingly, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, West Champaran at Bettiah in connection with Majhaulia P.S. Case No. 121 of 2020.
