ORAL ORDER

2 10-10-2023 1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present case is of the year 2014, in which, charges have been framed and the petitioner is the husband. It is next submitted that the marriage of the petitioner with the O.P No.2 was performed in the year 1995, thereafter in 2004, the petitioner gave divorce to the O.P. No. 2 and thus was living separately, it is further submitted that the petitioner in the year 2014 after obtaining divorce from the O.P. No.2 performed his second marriage, when the present false F.I.R. came to be instituted in the year 2014 itself, it is next submitted that despite charges having been framed in the year 2016 but till date the trial has not concluded nor the O.P. No.2 is showing any interest in the case nor is appearing for the trial.

3. The learned counsel after making aforesaid submission submits that the petitioner would be satisfied in the event if a direction is given to conclude the trial within a time frame.

4. The learned APP does not dispute the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner.

5. Considering the submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioner since the trial has commenced, as such the Court is not inclined to interfere in the matter. However, the Court expects that the trial shall be disposed of expeditiously.
