ORAL ORDER

3 24-07-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 341, 323, 325, 307, 504, 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution case, while the informant was returning to home, meanwhile the accused persons including the petitioner surrounded him and started assaulting him due to which the informant sustained injury. Further, co-accused Vinod Dash snatched Rs. 50,000/- from the informant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. The informant and the petitioner are agnates and due to land dispute between them, this petitioner has falsely been made accused in the present case. As per injury report of the informant which is annexed with the case diary, all injuries sustained by the informant are simple in nature. He has got no criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of the bail petitioner. Moreover, the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 6.2.2023.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The above named petitioner is directed to be released on bail in connection with Kawakol (Kawakole) P.S. Case No. 67 of 2023 on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Nawada.
