ORAL ORDER

2 28-03-2023 No one appears for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the respondent states that after having issued the notice which is under challenge in the present writ petition, the plot has been cancelled and allotted to someone else. In view thereof, the writ petition has been rendered infructuous, as no one is appearing on behalf of the petitioner.

Taking into consideration the submissions of the respondents, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous.
