CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

4 23-03-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471 and 120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code pending in the learned court below.

Allegation against the petitioner is that he has taken money from the informant on the pretext of providing job.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that there is no evidence against the petitioner to support the prosecution case except confessional statement of the co-accused. He submits that neither the petitioner would like to submit that the petitioner has neither met with the informant nor the informant had paid any money to the petitioner for getting his job. He further submits that petitioner has got no criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of the bail application.

Per contra, learned APP for the State vehemently opposing the bail application and submitted that on the confessional statement of the co-accused, he has supported the prosecution case. Hence, he does not deserve anticipatory bail.

Considering the nature of the offence, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail in connection with Dumra P.S. Case No. 76 of 2022. Accordingly, his prayer for anticipatory bail is hereby rejected.
