ORAL ORDER

4 11-01-2023 Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to remove the defect(s), as pointed out by the office, if any, within a period of three weeks from today.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

The Petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable u/s 341, 323, 308, 504 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, there was quarrel between the daughter of the informant and the sister of Nahid. Thereafter, the petitioner and the co-accused persons armed with Danda came and started abusing the informant and assaulted with Danda. When the cousin brother, namely, Sayek and family members came to rescue the informant, then the accused persons started scuffling with them. The informant further alleged that the petitioner assaulted the informant of the back side of his head with lathi and started pulling his hydrocele and when his cousin came to rescue, he was also assaulted with Danda, due to which the informant and his cousin became injured.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has falsely been implicated in this case due to previous enmity due to land dispute. There is specific allegation against the petitioner though the injury is simple in nature. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent as stated at para 3 of the bail petition.

Learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer of anticipatory bail of the petitioner.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner, in the event of his arrest/surrender within a period of six weeks from today, be enlarged on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail-bond of Rs. 20,000/- (Rupees twenty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court concerned, Araria in connection with Jokihat P.S. Case No. 587 of 2021, subject to conditions as laid down under section 438(2) of the
