CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HARISH KUMAR
ORAL ORDER

3 21-06-2023 Heard Mrs. Vaishnavi Singh, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

This is the fourth attempt made by the petitioner seeking prayer for bail in connection with Sessions Trial No. 630 of 2019 arising out of Asthawan P.S. Case No. 177 of 2019 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 363 and 365 of the Indian Penal Code. Later on Sections 364 and 120(B)/34 of the Indian Penal Code was added.

Earlier the prayer of bail of the petitioner was rejected taking into consideration the serious nature of accusation that he has killed his wife and his daughter, coupled with the fact that trial is at the fag end.

Mrs. Vaishnavi Singh, learned counsel for the petitioner fairly submitted that she has been informed that as of now all the witnesses have been examined and the case has been fixed for argument.

Learned APP for the State opposes the bail application and submits that the trial is likely to be concluded within a period of two months.

In view of the submissions made on behalf of the parties and taking into consideration that the prayer for bail of the petitioner had already been rejected on merit on several occasions and this Court does not find any overwhelming changed circumstances for reconsideration. However, considering the fact that the trial of the case is fixed for argument, it is expected that the learned trial Court shall conclude the trial as early as possible, preferably within a period of two months.

Accordingly, the prayer for bail of the petitioner stands rejected.
