learned APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 363, 366A, of the Indian Penal Code.

As per FIR, the allegation against the petitioner is that she sold the daughter of the informant for the purpose of ulterior motives.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. She has falsely been implicated in this case merely on the basis of suspicion. The petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. As per statement of the victim recorded under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C., which is annexed with case diary, wherein she has not specifically stated about any physical misbehave and physical assault against the petitioner. It is further submitted that the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 16.10.2022.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail and submitted that the victim is minor girl and the petitioner took her due to ill motive.
