CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN
ORAL ORDER

2 05-06-2023 Let the defect(s), if any, be removed within two weeks from today.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Pakaribarawan P.S. Case No. 16 of 2023 lodged under Section 363 later on added Section 364-A of the I.P.C.

As per the prosecution case, the F.I.R. has been lodged by the informant about missing of his son.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the name of the petitioner has figured in this case during investigation. Counsel submits that there is even no suspicion has been raised against the present petitioner. Counsel submits that the antecedent of the petitioner is clean and she is in custody since 21.01.2023.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer for bail and submits that from the order passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-II, Nawada rejecting the bail of the petitioner has categorically narrated the entire modus operandi of the petitioner which are present in various paragraphs of the case diary.

In the present facts and circumstances of this case and the submissions made above, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner and, therefore, her bail petition is hereby rejected.

Liberty is hereby granted to the petitioner that she may renew her prayer for bail after framing of charge and the Trial Court is directed to release her on bail thereafter imposing its own conditions so that she may not evade her appearance during trial.

With this observation, the bail application stands rejected.

(Dr. Anshuman, J.)
