CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN

ORAL ORDER

2 08-06-2023 Let the defect(s), if any, be removed within two weeks from today.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Fatehpur P.S. Case No. 473 of 2022 registered on 23.07.2022 lodged under Sections 324, 307, 387 and 34 of the I.P.C. under

As per the prosecution case, F.I.R. has been lodged against two unknown accused persons, against whom the allegation of firing upon the informant's establishment is there.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the name of the petitioner has figured by virtue of confessional statement of the co-accused.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He further submits that petitioner is in custody since 03.11.2022 having four criminal cases pending against him, in which he is persuading for bail in all the four cases. Counsel submits that nothing incriminating has been recovered from the petitioner's possession.

Learned counsel for the State opposes the prayer for bail and there are four criminal cases pending against the petitioner, which are of similar nature, therefore, at the time considering the bail application, the said aspect may be taken into consideration.

In response, counsel for the petitioner submits that in paragraph-3, he has categorically mentioned that all the four cases has been lodged against the petitioner within a period of 10 days from the lodging of the first case, which shows the strange attitude of the police towards him.

In the present facts and circumstances of this case and the submissions made above, let the petitioner above named, be granted bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate-Xth, Gaya in connection with Fatehpur P.S. Case No. 473 of 2022, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 437(3) of Cr.P.C.

With this observation, the bail application stands allowed.
