CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY
ORAL ORDER

3 16-01-2023 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The petitioners have preferred this application for grant of regular bail in a case registered under sections 302, 201 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per the prosecution case, it is stated by the informant that on receiving information about the discovery of a dead body, he went to the place where the dead body was found. None of the persons gathered there could identify the deceased who appeared to be as 26 year old and it further appeared that he had been strangled with the help of a towel.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that the F.I.R was registered against unknown. The petitioners were falsely implicated in course of investigation in the confessional statement of co-accused Rajesh Ram made before police which is inadmissible. As per the confessional statement the said Rajesh Ram was having an affair with the wife of the deceased. The petitioners are in custody since 27.12.2021 and have no criminal antecedent.

The application for bail of the petitioners is opposed by learned A.P.P. for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the nature of material that has transpired in course of investigation, there being no direct material to connect the petitioners with the alleged crime together with the petitioners having remained in custody for over 1 year since 27.12.2021, both the petitioners are directed to be enlarged on bail in connection with Karamchat P.S. Case no.

62 of 2021 on each of them furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-III, Bhabhua, Kaimur.
