CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MOHIT KUMAR SHAH
ORAL ORDER

2 07-11-2023 1. The present writ petition has been filed seeking the following relief:-

“(i) For a direction/order to the Respondent No.2,3 to make interference in the matter because the petitioner has been forcibly debarred from her matrimonial house after forcibly taking/looking her movable and immovable property by the Private

Respondent no.5,6,7 for dire consequences, if the either return her matrimonial house or make any demand of her materials/articles like movable or immovable property.”

2. At the outset, the learned counsel for the respondent-State has referred to the counter affidavit, filed in the present case, more particularly, paragraph no.05 thereof, which is reproduced, hereinbelow:-

“That on the averment made in the writ petition, the SP Motihari passed an order directing the SHO Patahi PS in whose jurisdiction the complainant, happens to be last residing in her matrimonial house, and accordingly the SHO has been directed, if any petition of the complainant, as narrated in the writ petition, is available in the Police Station also a request should be made to SDO Pakridayal to take suitable legal action under the provisions of senior citizen and maintenance act and Rules, 2007.”

3. In view of the aforesaid, this Court deems it fit and proper to dispose off the present writ petition, while granting liberty to the petitioner to avail such other alternative remedies, as are otherwise available under the law, for redressal of her subsisting grievances, if any.

(Mohit Kumar Shah, J)
