The prosecution case, as per the First Information Report, is that the petitioner, along with other co-accused persons, assaulted the informant, his son and daughter, by means of iron-rod, due to which they sustained injury.

Learned Counsel for the petitioner submits that both the parties are agnates and co-sharers and there is land dispute between them. Referring to Annexure 2 series, he submits that the injuries caused to the informant and others are simple in nature. He next submits that the petitioner's side were also assaulted by the informant and others, but the fardbayan of the petitioner was not accepted by the police, which would be evident from Annexure 3.

Regards being had to the submissions advanced on behalf of petitioner and taking into consideration the fact that both the parties are agnates, there is land dispute between them and the injuries sustained by the informant and others are simple in nature, I am inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail.

This application is, accordingly, allowed.
