CORAM: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE

and

HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY

ORAL JUDGMENT

(Per: HONOURABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE)

Date : 14-07-2023

1. Consistently, none appeared for the petitioner on two days when the matter was posted before this Court. Today, we kept it aside for hearing and again took up the matter when too there was no appearance; in which circumstance, we perused the writ petition and heard the respondent-State.

2. The writ petition is in the nature of a public interest litigation, seeking termination of private respondent no.5, who is appointed against the post of Assistant Teacher in Middle School Navibandh Belhar, District-Banka, allegedly on the basis of fictitious documents. It is trite that service matters cannot be agitated on public interest. Obviously, the petitioner, on inimical terms with the 5th respondent, is agitating the cause by way of a writ petition, that too a PIL.

3. We find absolutely no reason to invoke the extraordinary writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India in such matters, especially in a PIL. The writ petition stands dismissed.
