CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE DR. ANSHUMAN
ORAL ORDER

4 24-01-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

Counsel for the petitioner submits that counter affidavit has been received and he seeks two weeks time.

Counsel for the State categorically mentioned that in the counter affidavit it has been clearly stated in paragraph no.7

that admissible dues have been paid to the petitioner.

In this background, this application is disposed of directing the petitioner that upon going through the counter affidavit, if he found anything not paid or some part which is still left found due, he may file representation in this regard within 6 weeks from the date of passing of this order and authority will decide the same within 10 weeks thereafter.

With this direction, the writ application is hereby disposed off.

(Dr. Anshuman, J.)
