APP for the State.

The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in connection with Lalganj P.S. Case no. 180 of 2019 instituted for the offence under Sections 147, 148, 1498, 341, 323, 307, 324, 395, 504, 506 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

It appears vide Annexure-1 that the anticipatory bail petition of the petitioner was earlier withdrawn by order dated 23.3.2022 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 30398 of 2021.

According to the FIR, the accused persons including the petitioner went to house of the informant and started assaulting to the informant and others due to which they sustained injuries. The petitioner is alleged to have assaulted to one Ravi Rai by means of farsa causing injury on his head.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this case due to local village politics. From perusal of injury report of injured Ravi Kumar S/o Shankar, it appears that he sustained lacerated wound caused by hard & blunt object and nature of the injury is simple. There is case and counter case between the parties. The petitioner has got no criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of the bail petition.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in the facts and circumstances of the case as stated above, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The petitioner is directed to surrender in the Court below within a period of four weeks from today and in the event of his arrest or surrender in connection with Lalganj P.S. Case no. 180 of 2019, he will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate-XIV, Vaishali at Hajipur subject to the conditions as laid down under
