counsel for the informant and learned APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 149, 341, 323, 307, 379, 504, 506 of the Indian Penal Code and added Section 302 of the I.P.C..

It is a case of assaulting by the petitioner and other accused persons to the informant's father due to which he sustained injury and he succumbed to injuries.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. There is general and omnibus allegation levelled against the petitioner and other accused persons and no specific overt act of assaulting has been made against the petitioner. The postmortem report is not in consonance with the prosecution case. It is further submitted that the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 07.07.2022.

Learned APP appearing for the state and learned counsel for the informant have opposed the prayer of regular bail and submitted that the petitioner also assaulted to the informant's father by means of iron rod along with others.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case as well as period of custody of the petitioner, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
