CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE SATYAVRAT VERMA
ORAL ORDER

2 11-07-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned
APP for the State.

The petitioners seek bail in anticipation of their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 498(A), 341, 323, 504, 506, 34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 3/ 4 of the D. P. Act.

The learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are persons with clean antecedent and have been falsely implicated in the present case, being father-in-law, mother-in-law, unmarried sister-in-law and married sister-in-law.

It is next submitted that from bare perusal of the allegation as alleged in the F.I.R., it would manifest that the allegation of demand of dowry and torture is not specific rather the petitioners have been implicated merely because they are parents and sisters of the husband of the informant.

It is next submitted that whenever a dispute between the husband and the wife arises, the entire family members are implicated. It is next submitted that petitioners are separate in mess and property from the husband of the informant. It is next submitted that even the allegation of assault is not specific. The learned counsel further submits that the anticipatory bail application of the husband has been rejected by the learned District Court and he is availing his remedies available in law.

Learned A.P.P. opposes the bail application.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, the petitioners, above-named, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks, are directed to be released on bail on their furnishing bail-bonds in the sum of Rs. 10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned C.J.M., Vaishali at

Hajipur in connection with Lalganj P. S. Case No.335 of 2022, subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.

The application stands allowed.
