CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

2 13-07-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioners apprehend their arrest in a case registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304(B)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

All the F.I.R. named accused persons including these petitioners, in furtherance of the common intention are said to have committed murder of the daughter of the informant after assaulting.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that petitioners are quite innocent and have committed no offence.

Petitioners are father-in-law, mother-in-law and co-wife (Sautan) of the deceased, respectively. No such occurrence as alleged ever took place. They have been falsely implicated in this case due to ulterior motive. The allegation levelled against the petitioners is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. Petitioners have no concern with the death of the deceased. Petitioner no.2 has one criminal antecedent, whereas petitioner nos. 1 & 3 have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para-3 of this application.

Per contra, learned APP for the State vehemently opposing the bail petition submitted that the allegations levelled against the petitioners is serious in nature, hence they do not deserve anticipatory bail.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, as there is no specific overt act against the petitioners, let the above named petitioners, be released on bail, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of six weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned lower Court where the case is pending/successor Court in connection with Turkauliya (Raghunathpur O.P.) P.S. Case No.

78 of 2023, subject to the condition as laid down under Section
438 (2) of the Cr.P.C.
