ORAL ORDER

2 12-07-2023 Heard the parties.

The petitioner is in custody in connection with Chand P.S. Case No. 274 of 2022 for the offence under Sections 302 and 34 of the Indian Penal Code lodged on 10.09.2022 by the informant, Radheshyam Pandey.

The case of the prosecution in brief is that on 10.09.22 a written complaint was lodged by the informant Radheshyam Pandey in Police Station Chand that the marriage of the informant's daughter Reena Devi with the applicant/accused Ajit Tiwari was solemnised in the year 2004. However, the accused Ajit Tiwari had a relationship with a woman for the last two years, with whom he used to talk on the phone regularly and after selling the gold ornaments of the informant's daughter Reena Devi, used to go out with her for two to four everyday. Upon return, he used to drink alcohol and threaten to kill the lady.

Informant received the information about the assault, he went there and tried to seek the help of the administration. On 09.09.2022 at 1:00 pm, Markdey Tiwari informed him on phone that his daughter has died. On information, the informant went to the place and found that the accused had killed her daughter and tied her throat with a ceiling fan to hide the evidence.

Considering the kind of allegation that has come against the petitioner, the husband, for the present, this Court is not inclined to extend him the privilege of bail, which is accordingly rejected.
