APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 498(A), 304(B), 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per allegation in the FIR, petitioner is husband of the informant's daughter and he has tortured her for non-fulfillment of additional dowry demand and ultimately she was being killed at her matrimonial house and accused persons had disposed off her dead body with a view to wipe off the evidence.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is husband of the deceased and has been falsely implicated in this case. He has never demanded any thing from the deceased. Prior to the said incident, there is no complain in respect of torture or harassment by any one at her matrimonial house. In fact, she herself committed suicide. It is further submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that matter has been compromised outside the court and now no grievance remains between them. Petitioner has got no criminal antecedent and languishing in judicial custody since 21.01.2023.

The application for bail is opposed by learned APP for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
