CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MOHIT KUMAR SHAH
ORAL ORDER

- 2 19-07-2023 1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.
2. The present petition has been filed for restoration of a petition bearing Cr. Misc. No.1527 of 2023, which has stood dismissed for default on account of non-removal of the defects within the peremptory time granted to the petitioner to do so.
3. The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that due to inadvertance, the defects could not be removed within time, however, the same would be removed within a period of two weeks from today, thus a sympathetic view be taken and the aforesaid petition be restored to its original file.

4. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, taking into account the material available on record, as also considering the averments made in the present petition, I deem it fit and appropriate to direct for restoration of the aforesaid petition bearing Cr. Misc. No.1527 of 2023 to its original file, subject to removal of the defects pointed out by registry, within a period of two weeks from today.

5. The present petition stands disposed off on the aforesaid terms.

(Mohit Kumar Shah, J)
