CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY
ORAL ORDER

6 27-06-2023 Heard the parties.

The petition was preferred for compliance of the order dated 03.12.2018 in CWJC No.7914 of 2015 and the concluding part of the said order is as follows:

Necessary decision on the line of the decision contained in memo no. 2699

dated 10.12.2009 may be taken with regard to claim of the petitioner at the earliest with all consequential benefits within a period of four months as the State cannot adopt two different yardsticks as held out by the Apex Court in the case of R.D. Shetty vs. IAAI & Ors. reported in AIR 1979 Supreme Court 1628 where the Court held out that even in the distribution of larges and bounty the State cannot discriminate its citizen.

A show-cause on behalf of the Principal Secretary is on record by which vide a reasoned order contained in Memo No.1378 dated 14.08.2019, the claim of the petitioner was rejected incorporating that the relief granted to Rajeshwar Prasad Singh it was recorded that it will not be an example for granting relief.

In sum and substance, the claim of the petitioner has been rejected.

The petitioner is well advised to challenge the same in a writ court, if he so wants.

The contempt petition is disposed of with the aforesaid liberty.
