ORAL ORDER

2 17-07-2023 Office has reported that, in the instant revision petition, the impugned order appears to be interlocutory in nature and against such an order, proper remedy would lie by way of filing an application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India. For this reason, the instant revision petition is not maintainable.

02. Under the circumstances, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to convert the instant revision petition into a petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

03. As prayed, permission is accorded subject to all available exceptions.
