ORAL ORDER

3 04-01-2023 The petitioner by way of this writ petition claims salary from November 2019 as a Night Guard. Apparently, the petitioner has not been working after November 2019. There is no document to show that he has been performing duties after November 2019. In view thereof, no relief can be granted to the petitioner. However, if the petitioner is aggrieved of his wrongful removal, he being a Night Guard would come within the ambit of definition of workmen and would be entitled to take up the remedies under the Labour Laws. Granting such liberty, the writ petition is dismissed.
