The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case information about illegal trading of Ganja, thereafter, he along with police party reached at the place and many co-accused sacks of ganja were recovered from the house of co-accused persons which are weighing about 363.150 kg. It is said to be that petitioner was also indulged in this illegal trading.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in the present case due to high handedness of the police officials.
