ORAL ORDER

5 21-02-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
APP for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defects within three weeks.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case
registered for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 341, 323, 325, 307, 506 and 324 of the Indian Penal Code
pending in the learned court below.

Petitioner along with other co-accused persons armed with deadly weapons is said to have assaulted the informant due to which he received injury.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that there is general and omnibus allegation against the petitioner. He submits that there is no any weapon in the hands of the petitioner. He further submits that petitioner has got one criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of the bail application.

Per contra, learned APP for the State vehemently opposing the bail application and submitted that the bail application of the other co-accused persons was rejected by the this Court vide order dated 25.07.2022 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 4333/2022. It is further submitted that from perusal of the injury report and case diary it appears that there is multiple injury including one stab wound. Hence, he does not deserve anticipatory bail.

Considering the nature of the offence, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail in connection with Khushrupur P.S. Case No. 303/2021. Accordingly, his prayer for anticipatory bail is hereby rejected.
