APP for the State.

2. The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under section 364, 365, 120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. As per FIR, the informant alleged that the petitioner came at her home and took away her husband along with him but her husband did not return till late night. Thereafter, she went to the home of the petitioner and asked about her husband then the petitioner told that he left her husband in the market and he has no knowledge about him. Then informant raised suspicion that the petitioner and co-accused persons abducted her husband who is as yet traceless.

4. Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has submitted that petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. He has falsely been implicated in this present case merely on the basis of suspicion and previous disputes. During investigation, no consistent material has been collected about the complicity of the petitioner. Similarly situated co-accused has already been granted bail by a coordinate Bench of this Court vide order dated 24.05.2023 passed in Cr. Misc No. 26514 of 2023.
