APP for the State.

The petitioner has prayed for regular bail in a case registered for the offence punishable under sections 363, 366A/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

As per prosecution case, the informant alleged that the accused persons including the petitioner abducted her daughter on the pretext of solemnization of marriage. Accordingly, the present FIR has been lodged.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has committed no offence. The petitioner is mother of co-accused Madhu Kumari due to which she has falsely been implicated in this case. From perusal of statement of victim recorded u/s 164 of Cr.P.C. which is mentioned in impugned order, no specific overt-act and complicity of the petitioner has been shown. A statement has been made in para-3 of the petition that the petitioner has got no criminal antecedent. It is further submitted that the petitioner is languishing in judicial custody since 23.4.2023.

Learned APP appearing for the state has opposed the prayer of regular bail.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and considering the facts that the petitioner, being a lady as well as her period of custody, this court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail.
