- 2 19-08-2023 1. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.
2. The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No.352 of 2018, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 323 and 498A of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.
3. The case of the complainant, in brief, is that her marriage was solemnized with the petitioner on 22.06.2018, as per Hindu rites and rituals, whereafter she had gone to her matrimonial home, however, subsequently, the accused persons, including the petitioner herein started demanding dowry to the tune of Rs.1 lakh and on account of non-fulfillment of the demand for dowry, the complainant was harassed and ousted from her matrimonial home.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent, he has been falsely implicated in the present case and he is having a clean antecedent. The learned counsel for the petitioner has further submitted, by referring to paragraph no.12 of the present petition, that the petitioner is ready and willing to keep his wife i.e. the opposite party no.2-complainant with due honour and dignity and he is also ready to participate in mediation proceedings, if any, to be initiated by the Ld. Court below, in order to resolve the matrimonial disputes amicably.

5. Per contra, the learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for grant of anticipatory bail.

6. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, I deem it fit and proper to direct the petitioner to surrender before the learned court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Jehanabad, in connection with Complaint Case No.352 of 2018, within a period of four weeks from today, whereupon the petitioner shall be admitted to the privilege of provisional bail on the very same day and then the learned court below shall issue notice to the complainant-wife and hold mediation proceeding in between the petitioner and his wife with a view to settle the matrimonial disputes between them amicably.

7. The learned court below is directed to take a final call with regard to either confirming the provisional bail to be granted to the petitioner or revoking the same subject to outcome of the mediation proceeding as also considering the case of the petitioner on merits, without being prejudiced by the dismissal of his bail petition by the learned court below.

8. In the meantime, for a period of four weeks from today, no coercive steps shall be taken against the petitioner herein.

9. The present petition stands disposed off on the aforesaid terms.
