CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

5 02-03-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Solicitor General.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defects, if any, within three weeks.

The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 8(c), 21(c), 22(c) and 29 of N.D.P.S. Act pending in the learned court below.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that co-accused, namely, Ajit Kumar Singh was arrested on 22.03.2022 and N.C.B. also recorded his confessional statement on 22.03.2022 and who disclosed before N.C.B. that 2 kg. recovered Alprozolam from the possession of co-accused Jai Prakash Singh in which 1 kg belongs to him and 1 kg belongs to the petitioner. He submits that it is important to mention here that the house of Ajit Kumar Singh and house of petitioner is situated adjacent to each other in village and due to local village politics the name of the petitioner is transpired in the present case. He further submits that petitioner has got no criminal antecedent as stated in para-3 of the bail application.

Learned A.S.G. opposes for prayer for bail and submits that the allegation levelled as the petitioner is serious in nature. Hence, he does not deserve anticipatory bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that there is ample material against the petitioner on record, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail in connection with N.D.P.S. Case No. 04 of 2022, arising out of N.C.B. Case No.02 of 2022. Accordingly, his prayer for anticipatory bail is hereby rejected.
