ORAL ORDER

5 05-12-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Gogri (Paura) P.S. Case No.136 of 2023 for the offences punishable under Section 304B/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

3. The daughter of informant is said to have been killed by the petitioners in association of other co-accused by assaulting her.

4. The petitioners are quite innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case as they are relatives of the husband of the deceased. The allegations levelled against the petitioners is general and omnibus in nature. It is further submitted that they live separately from the deceased or her husband and they have no concern with them. It is further submitted that petitioner no.1 is the sister-in-law, petitioner no.2 is mother-in-law and petitioner no.3 is the father-in-law of the deceased. Petitioners have no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para-3 of this application.

5. Per contra, learned APP for the State vehemently opposing the bail petition submitted that the allegations levelled against the petitioners is serious in nature, hence they do not deserve anticipatory bail.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of case and on perusing the case diary along with the postmortem report, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioners on bail. The prayer for bail of the petitioners is hereby rejected. However, if the petitioners surrender before the learned Court below within six weeks from today and seek regular bail the learned Court below would pass order in accordance with law without being prejudiced by this order.
