4. The matter was referred for mediation by a Bench of this Court on 04.08.2023. The mediation report is on record and from perusal of the same, it appears that dispute between the parties has been resolved through process of mediation. The terms of settlement mutually agreed upon by the parties are reduced to writing duly signed by the petitioner and the opposite party no. 2 and their respective advocates.
5. Learned counsel for the opposite party no. 2 submits that the anticipatory bail application may be disposed in terms of agreement arrived at between the parties during the course of mediation, which was signed by both the parties on 29.09.2023.
6. Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the fact that the dispute is with regard to marriage discord between the parties and both husband and wife has arrived at amicable settlement, I am inclined to grant the petitioner privilege of anticipatory bail with the condition that the both the parties shall abide by the terms of agreement, dated 29.09.2023, mutually arrived at before the mediator.
7. This application is, accordingly, allowed.

8. Let the petitioner, above named, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the Court below within four weeks, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Hajipur, Vaishali, in connection with Complaint Case No. 2576 of 2022, subject to the condition laid down under Section 438 (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
