CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

5 03-03-2023 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

Learned counsel for the petitioner undertakes to remove the defect(s), as pointed out by the office, within four weeks.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Sadar P.S.
Case No. 196 of 2022 registered for the offences punishable under Section 366-A of the Indian Penal Code pending in the Court of learned C.J.M., Purnea.

Allegation against the petitioner is that the daughter of the informant was taken by the petitioner by alluring her. The informant has a fear that any wrong thing may happen with his daughter.

Learned counsel for the petitioner that no such occurrence as alleged ever took place. He has been falsely implicated in this case. The allegation levelled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. He submits that there is no evidence or any material that before the occurrence the petitioner and the victim were known to each other. He further submits that the petitioner has no criminal antecedent as mentioned in para-3 of the bail application.

Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail and submits that the statement of the victim was recorded under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C., in which she has supported the prosecution case. Hence, he does not deserve privilege of anticipatory bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances of case and the nature of offence, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail in connection with Sadar P.S. Case No. 196 of 2022.

The prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is hereby rejected.
