added and informant's brother is stated to be the deceased but any specific role of the petitioner in assaulting the deceased has not been revealed in the FIR and the allegation concerned to him is general and omnibus. Further submissions are that co-accused Alagu Yadav, who allegedly assaulted at the head of the informant by means of farsa, has been granted bail by a co-ordinate bench of this court vide order passed in Cr. Misc. No. 2899 of 2023 and Suresh Yadav carrying similar nature of allegation like this petitioner has also been granted bail by the same order. Considering the above submissions and mainly taking into account the circumstances pointed out by the petitioner's counsel which go in favour of the petitioner's prayer, in my opinion, it is a fit case for bail to the petitioner.
